The Andreas Zahler Scholarship for Advanced Filmmaking Studies

Application

Andreas Zahler was a renowned commercial film director. He died suddenly at the age of 45. Mr. Zahler's family, friends, and colleagues in the film industry have established this scholarship fund in his memory.

THE AWARD

The award of $750 contributes towards tuition for one of the required production courses (Cinematography II, Production Sound, Editing II with Avid or Final Cut Pro, Digital Video Production II, or Film Production II), to advanced students who have distinguished themselves in earlier courses and who need financial aid to continue their film production studies. Granting of the award is competitive, based on demonstrated achievement in previous SCPS filmmaking courses, and on financial need.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for consideration you must:

1. be an advanced student in the NYU SCPS film program in good standing (i.e., have successfully completed at least the level one component of the required production courses).
2. submit two letters of recommendation, one from your instructor in your last film production course who can describe your achievement.
3. demonstrate financial need. Please provide a statement of income (tax return, or pay stub), a statement of expenses (rent, utilities, transportation etc.), and a brief statement of why there is need (loss of job unemployed or other reasons why income after expenses is insufficient to cover the cost of the course).
4. not be the recipient of any grant or scholarship or tuition assistance (either from NYU, an outside agency, or your employer).
5. be a U.S. citizen or eligible non citizen. (Not available to international students.)

IF YOU DO NOT MEET ALL THE ABOVE CRITERIA, DO NOT SUBMIT THIS APPLICATION.
